

TOP ATTRACTIONS

Sicily Region

The eastern side of Sicily offers an extraordinary blend of volcanic landscapes, ancient history, vibrant cities and Mediterranean coastline. Whether you're staying for a few hours or extending your trip after the Everesting World Championship, these are the places that best capture the character of this remarkable region.

Mount Etna

Europe's highest active volcano is far more than the setting for the World Championship. Constantly changing through eruptions, seasons and light, Etna offers a landscape unlike anywhere else in the Mediterranean and has been recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
