

WHERE TO EAT

Sicily Region

Every ride deserves a great meal. Fortunately, in Sicily, that's never difficult.

After hours on the bike, few rewards feel better than a table full of authentic Sicilian flavours. From traditional family-run trattorias in Linguaglossa to Michelin-starred restaurants, renowned wineries and seaside dining, eastern Sicily offers something for every appetite.

Linguaglossa

Located at the foot of Mount Etna, Linguaglossa is the heart of the World Championship weekend. Most athletes will spend their time here, making it the perfect place to discover authentic Sicilian cuisine, local wines and the warm hospitality that defines this mountain town.

Shalai Restaurant

Michelin-starred restaurant combining refined Sicilian cuisine with the flavours of the Etna region.

Website

In Cucina Dai Pennisi

Well known for premium meats and local Etna specialities.

Website

Boccaperta

Contemporary Sicilian cuisine focused on seasonal local ingredients.

Website

Osteria VinEtna

Traditional dishes, excellent Etna wines and a relaxed atmosphere.

Website

Trattoria LinguaGrossa

Authentic Sicilian recipes served in a welcoming family-run setting.

Website

Tradizione Siciliana da Leo

Home-style Sicilian cooking inspired by local traditions.

Website

Allegre Vino e Cucina

Wine bar and restaurant ideal for sharing local flavours.

Gastronomia L'Aurora

Perfect for takeaway meals and a quick lunch.

Website

Semplice e Buono Friggitoria Gastronomia

Traditional Sicilian street food and fried specialities.

Website

12 Fontane

Elegant dining experience featuring seasonal Sicilian cuisine.

Website

L'Altro Royal

Generous Sicilian cuisine in a relaxed atmosphere.

Website

Bottega dell'Etna

Local delicatessen showcasing regional products.

Website

Nica Nuci

Ideal for breakfast, pastries, granita and light lunches.

Website

Etna Wine

The volcanic slopes of Mount Etna have become one of Italy's most exciting wine regions.

Website

Gambino Winery

Wine tastings with panoramic vineyard views.

Website

Planeta Sciaranuova

Award-winning wines in a unique volcanic setting.

Website

Benanti Winery

Historic producer of Etna DOC wines.

Website

Cottanera

Modern winery surrounded by vineyards.

Website

Emilio Sciacca

Boutique winery and tasting experiences.

Website

Tenute Nicosia

Traditional Sicilian hospitality and wines.

Website

Murgo Winery

Family-run estate producing Etna wines.

Website

Scilio

Historic Etna winery.

Website

Tornatore

Elegant tasting room and local cuisine.

Website

Taormina & Giardini Naxos

Perfect for a memorable dinner overlooking the sea or in the historic centre.

La Capinera

Fine dining inspired by Sicilian seafood.

Website

Otto Geleng

Michelin-starred cuisine with spectacular views.

Website

Trattoria Don Ciccio

Classic Sicilian recipes.

RossoPeperoncino

Casual Italian and Sicilian favourites.

Ristorante al Saraceno

Panoramic restaurant above Taormina.

Website

Casa Grugno

Refined local cuisine.

Tischi Toschi

Contemporary Mediterranean dishes.

Website

Catania

From historic trattorias to contemporary restaurants, Catania offers one of Sicily's richest food scenes.

Me Cumpari Turiddu

Traditional Sicilian cuisine.

Website

Osteria Antica Marina

Seafood next to the famous fish market.

Website

FUD Bottega Sicula

Modern Sicilian burgers and local products.

Website

Il Sale Art Café

Creative Sicilian cuisine.

Website

Scirocco Sicilian Fish Lab

Street seafood at its best.

Website

Gluten-Free & Lactose-Free Options

Many restaurants around Mount Etna are happy to accommodate guests with gluten or lactose intolerance. We recommend informing the staff in advance, especially in the case of coeliac disease or severe allergies.

TIP: Typical Sicilian Specialties

No visit to Sicily is complete without discovering its traditional flavours.

- Arancini
- Pasta alla Norma
- Caponata
- Pistacchio from Bronte
- Cannoli
- Granita & Brioche
- Cassata Siciliana
- Swordfish
- Fresh seafood
- Etna DOC wines